AS SECOND PARTY: Filsinger Energy Partners, Inc. ("FEP"), a corporation formed and existing under the laws of the State of Colorado, United States of America, with a principal place of business in 90 Madison Street, Suite 600, Denver, CO 80206, and authorized to do business in Puerto Rico, herein represented by its Senior Managing Director, Todd W.  - 1.4 At the direction of PREPA, FEP may be required to work with other consulting, legal, investment, or other type of firms. The Parties agree to discuss such tasking in advance, so that all the Parties have a clear understanding as to their responsibilities. FEP is not responsible for work performed by others. -----
 - 1.5 Appendix A attached hereto provides a schedule of the professionals assigned to this matter. Should FEP assign another person not included in Appendix A to attend to PREPA's matters pursuant to this Agreement, FEP shall promptly send PREPA an amended "Schedule of Professionals", to include such person's name and position for incorporation into this Agreement, approval of which by PREPA shall not be unreasonably withheld. Unless PREPA objects in writing within (5) business days upon receipt of the amended "Schedule of Professionals", the amended "Schedule of Professionals" shall be considered approved as submitted.

1.6 Pryor to each week, FEP will provide PREPA a table summarizing the planned staffing support to be provided for each task. For the avoidance of doubt, the provided table will include the names of personnel planned to be assigned to each task and whether such personnel are planning to travel to Puerto Rico to provide "on-site" support. Nothing presented in the provided summary table shall prevent other personnel listed in the Appendix A schedule of professionals from supporting FEP's scope of work, as needed and determined by FEP. FEP will report a summary of activities to PREPA's Project Management Office ("PMO") monthly in a format mutually agreeable to FEP and the Administrator of the PMO. -----

Article 2. Services Coordination

All the Services of FEP in relation to the terms and conditions of this Agreement will be coordinated through the CEO or the person delegated by him. -----

Article 3. Agreement Assignment or Subcontract

FEP shall not assign nor subcontract its rights and obligations under this Agreement, except in the event that PREPA gives written authorization for such actions. Provided, that no subcontract shall be considered for PREPA's approval, except when the

A request for authorization to subcontract shall specify the issues or matters that will be referred to the subcontractor. Unless otherwise expressly agreed, these services shall be paid as part of the Agreement Amount, as stated in Article 6, Payment. -----

Article 4. Agreement Term

This Agreement shall be in effect from the date of its execution (the "Effective Date") until June 30, 2020 ("Agreement Period") unless earlier terminated pursuant to Articles 5.1, 5.2, 28 or 29. The Agreement may be extended, for an additional annual fiscal period only by written amendment agreed upon by both Parties, at the exclusive option of PREPA, and subject to availability of funds -----

Article 5. Agreement Termination

5.1 Either Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, at any time, with thirty (30) days prior written notice by registered mail, return receipt requested, or overnight express mail to the other Party. If notice is given, the Agreement shall terminate upon the expiration of the thirty (30) days (“Termination Date”) and PREPA shall be obligated to pay all fees and expenses incurred up to the Termination Date, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The rights, duties and responsibilities of the Parties shall continue in full force and effect during the thirty (30) day notice period. In the event of termination, FEP shall have no further right to compensation except for what has been accrued for services rendered and expenses incurred under the Agreement until the Termination Date. -

If either Party terminates this Agreement (whether pursuant to Article 5.1, 5.2, or 29), such termination shall not affect FEP’s right to receive all amounts owed by PREPA to FEP or the accrued rights of PREPA to receive the work product generated by FEP pursuant to this Agreement (the “Work”) through the date of termination. The obligations of the Parties under Articles 6, 7, 8, 11, 13, 14, 20, 24 and 25 shall survive termination of this Agreement. -----

5.2 If either Party materially breaches any term or provision of this Agreement and does not remedy such material breach within 72 hours after receipt of a prior written notice of default, the non-breaching Party may immediately terminate this

Agreement upon written notice, and such termination shall be effective as of the date of such written notice. -----

5.3 The Parties acknowledge that PREPA is undergoing a transformation process, and therefore, both Parties agree that in the eventuality of the execution of a Partnership Contract, Sale Contract or any other PREPA Transaction (as these terms are defined in Act 120-2018), PREPA may sell, assign, convey, transfer, pledge, mortgage, sublease, delegate, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose (each, a "Transfer") any of its rights, title, or interest in this Agreement as permitted by applicable law and at any time, and without FEP's consent or cost, expense or incremental liability to PREPA, to any future operator of Puerto Rico's electric power transmission and distribution system or any of its affiliates, or to any governmental agency, body, public corporation or municipality of Puerto Rico; provided, that PREPA shall notify FEP no later than thirty (30) days before the effective date of any such Transfer. Article 11. Information Disclosure and Confidentiality

11.1 In performing the services under this Agreement, each Party may have access to, and may provide the other Party with information or documentation that constitutes confidential information (“Confidential Information”). Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to, any non-public information about customers or potential customers (regardless of whether it is personally identifiable or anonymous information), business and marketing plans, employee information, systems, manuals, policies and procedures, and products and services, including the disclosure of the engagements covered under this Agreement. The Parties shall take all reasonable steps to keep confidential and use only for the purposes contemplated by the terms of the Agreement the Confidential Information provided by PREPA and/or FEP, and take all reasonable steps to ensure that such information is not disclosed or distributed by its employees or agents in violation of the terms of this Agreement. -----

11.2 The Parties also agree that, except as agreed to in writing by both Parties, they will not, at any time, disclose any Confidential Information to any person whatsoever other than those officers, directors, employees or agents whose duties reasonably require access to such Confidential Information, or permit any person whatsoever other than officer, directors, employees or agents of the Parties to examine and/or make copies of any reports prepared by FEP or under its control by reason of its consulting services. Upon termination of this Agreement each Party will turn over to the other Party, upon request, all documents, papers, and other matters in its possession or under its control that relate to the other Party. FEP may retain one file copy for its records. -----

11.3 Notwithstanding Article 11.2, if a Party receiving Confidential Information proposes to disclose such Confidential Information, including the engagements covered under this Agreement, to a third party in order to perform under the Agreement or otherwise, the receiving Party must first obtain the consent of the disclosing Party to make such disclosure and enter into a confidentiality agreement with such third party under which that third party would be restricted from disclosing, using or duplicating such Confidential Information in a manner inconsistent with the terms of this Article 11. Receiving Party may use such Confidential Information only in connection with its performance under this Agreement or as otherwise required by applicable law. Receiving Party shall protect such Confidential Information using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized use or disclosure of such Confidential Information as receiving Party uses to protect its own confidential information. Confidential Information shall be returned to the disclosing Party or destroyed upon disclosing Party's request once the work contemplated by this Agreement has been completed or upon termination of this Agreement (whichever is earlier). -----

11.4 Notwithstanding anything contrary in this Article 11, FEP may share Confidential Information with (i) AAFAF, (ii) representatives of the Commonwealth and its agencies and instrumentalities, and (iii) with the FOMB under a common interest privilege, or as PREPA's Title III representative subject to the same confidentiality requirements under this agreement. -----

11.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the term "Confidential Information" shall include, but not be limited to, all information provided to FEP by PREPA or at PREPA's direction regarding its facilities or operations and any and all information gathered or developed by FEP regarding the same. The Parties further agree that proprietary records and documents related to FEP's business operations are confidential to FEP and will not be disclosed to PREPA or other Parties, except as ordered by the court. The Parties agree that PREPA will resist any attempt by

- (b) received from a third party that, to the knowledge of the receiving Party, is free to disclose the information to the receiving Party;
- (c) independently developed by the receiving Party without the use of information received from the disclosing Party;
- (d) communicated to a third party with the express prior written consent of the disclosing Party; or

11.6 The Parties acknowledge that disclosure of any confidential information by either Party will give rise to irreparable harm to the injured Party inadequately compensable in damages. Accordingly, either Party may seek and obtain injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of the foregoing undertakings, in addition to any other legal remedies, which may be available. ----

11.7 If this Agreement terminates for any reason, FEP shall maintain in strictest confidence, both during the term of this Agreement and subsequent to

In the event of an actual or threatened breach by FEP of the provisions of this paragraph, PREPA shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief for such breach. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting PREPA from pursuing any other legal remedies available, including the recovery of damages from FEP. -----

11.8 The above provisions do not apply with respect to information which FEP is requested to disclose under applicable law and regulations, court order, subpoena or governmental directives, in which case FEP shall provide PREPA prompt notice of such request in order to procure for PREPA a reasonable opportunity to oppose such disclosure. FEP agrees to expeditiously notify and submit to PREPA a copy of any court order or subpoena and to the extent possible provide any assistance to PREPA (in the form of documents) regarding the submission of such information. -----

11.9 With respect to this Agreement and any information supplied in connection with this Agreement and designated by the disclosing Party as confidential, the recipient agrees to: (i) protect the confidential information in a reasonable and appropriate manner and in accordance with applicable professional standards; (ii) use confidential information only to perform its obligations under this Agreement; and (iii) reproduce confidential information only as required to perform its obligations under this Agreement.-----

Article 12. Rights and Titles

12.1 FEP will submit any reports reasonably required by PREPA regarding the Services performed under this Agreement. If required by PREPA, at the completion of any assigned task, FEP will submit a final written report describing the work it has performed. This requirement shall not be interpreted as a waiver by PREPA of FEP's ethical obligation and responsibility of keeping PREPA informed of the progress of the assigned matters. -----

12.2 All rights, titles and interest in any reports, documents, analyses, investigations and any other by-product conceived or developed by FEP exclusively for PREPA as a result of performing its obligations under this Agreement shall be the exclusive property of PREPA. FEP shall retain all right, title, and interest in and to proprietary works of authorship, pre-existing or otherwise, that have not been created specifically for PREPA under this Agreement. With the exception of items marked as "CONFIDENTIAL" by FEP, PREPA shall retain the right to use, refer, share, or provide to any third party, as PREPA may determine, the results of any reports, documents, analyses, investigations or any other by-product of the Services performed by FEP under this Agreement. -----

Article 13. Copyright

FEP and PREPA shall jointly defend any suit or action brought against either party based on a claim that any document, report, study, analysis, copyrighted composition, article or any by-product of those, either used in the performance of the Services by FEP or provided to PREPA by FEP as part of its Services, or used in the performance of this Agreement, including their use by PREPA, constitutes an infringement of any patents or copyrights of the United States. The Party to this Agreement subject to the claim or that becomes aware of a potential claim shall promptly notify in writing the other Party to this Agreement, and give the authority, information, and assistance reasonable and necessary for the defense of such claim. -----

Article 14. Warranty

14.1 FEP and its officers, directors, employees, and agents shall conduct the work in accordance with all applicable governmental laws, rules, regulations, and good standard industry practices, in a professional manner, and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. -----

14.2 No other warranty, express or implied, is made or intended by this Agreement, by furnishing oral or written reports of findings made, or by any other act of FEP. ----

Article 15. Responsibility for Damages

The appearing Parties agree that their responsibilities for damages under this Agreement will be governed by the terms of this Agreement, including Article 25 of this Agreement, and by the Puerto Rico Civil Code and its case law, as dictated by the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico. -----

Article 16. Independent Contractor

16.1 FEP shall be considered as an independent contractor, for all purposes under this Agreement, and all persons engaged or contracted by FEP for the performance of its obligations herein, shall be considered as its employees or agents, and not as employees or agents of PREPA or public servants of the PREPA or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. -----

16.2 As an independent contractor, FEP shall not be entitled to any fringe benefits, such as, but not limited to vacation, sick leave, and to which PREPA's employees are entitled. -----

16.3 FEP is fully and solely responsible for all taxes, assessments, penalties, fines, and interest relating to wages and benefits paid to FEP's employees under this Agreement, pursuant to all federal, state and local laws, including required withholding from wages of employees, regardless of the characterization of those employees by the Parties, administrative agencies, or the courts. -----

16.4 FEP, its subcontractors, and their officers, directors, and employees are not agents or employees of PREPA and have no authority to obligate or bind PREPA in any way. -----

Article 17. Employees not to Benefit

No officer, employee or agent of PREPA, nor of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or its Municipal Governments shall be admitted to any share or part of this Agreement or to any benefit that may arise therefrom. -----

Article 18. Conflict of Interest

18.1 FEP certifies that none of its representatives under this Agreement receive payment or compensation of any nature, for the services regularly rendered through an appointment as public official or public servant in another government agency, body, public corporation or municipality of Puerto Rico. FEP also certifies that it may have other consulting services contracts with other governmental agencies or bodies, but such condition does not constitute a Conflict of Interest for FEP as such term is defined in Article 18.2. -----

18.2 FEP acknowledges that in executing its services pursuant to this Agreement it has a duty of complete loyalty towards PREPA which includes not having conflicts of interest. "Conflict of Interest" means representing clients who have or may have interests that are contrary to PREPA, but does not include rendering services that are unrelated to the services covered in this Agreement. Also, FEP shall have the continuous obligation to disclose to PREPA all information and circumstances of its relations with clients and third persons that would result in a Conflict of Interest which would influence FEP when performing its responsibilities under this Agreement. If FEP is required to provide services to another entity of the Executive Branch under the provisions of Article 29 and such services could result in a Conflict of Interest, FEP will notify PREPA in writing as provided in this Article. -----

18.3 The Parties understand and agree that a Conflict of Interest exists when FEP must advocate a position or outcome on behalf of any existing or future client that is contrary to PREPA's interests. Also, any conduct defined in the Rules of Professional Conduct regarding conflicts of interests shall apply to FEP and its personnel. PREPA acknowledges FEP is a firm having multiple financial institutions and investors as clients, and with or without FEP's knowledge, any of such clients may from time to time acquire, hold or trade interests adverse to PREPA or its affiliates. FEP representations of those clients in unrelated matters shall not be deemed conflicts or undue influences on FEP or a Conflict of Interest within the meaning of this Agreement.-----

18.4 In the event that any of the partners, directors, agents or employees of FEP engaged in providing services under this Agreement should engage in the conduct described herein, said conduct shall constitute a violation of the prohibitions provided herein.-----

18.5 FEP’s partners, directors, agents or employees and personnel shall endeavor to avoid even the appearance of the existence of conflicting interests that have not otherwise been waived. -----

18.6 FEP acknowledges that PREPA’s Chief Executive Officer shall have the power to intervene with the acts of FEP and/or its agents, employees, and subcontractors regarding the enforcement of the prohibitions contained herein. In the event that the existence of adverse interests is discovered, PREPA’s Chief Executive Officer shall inform FEP in writing of PREPA’s intention to terminate this Agreement within a thirty (30) day period. During said period, FEP may request a hearing with the Chief Executive Officer to present its arguments regarding the alleged conflict of interests. In the event that FEP does not request such hearing during the specified thirty (30) day period or the controversy is not satisfactory settled during the hearing, this Agreement shall be terminated at the end of such thirty (30) day period. -----

18.7 FEP certifies that, at the time of the execution of this Agreement, it does not have a Conflict of Interest with PREPA and that it does not maintain any claim, judicial or otherwise, against the Government of Puerto Rico, its agencies or instrumentalities. Also, FEP certifies that, to the best of its knowledge, at the time of the execution of this Agreement, none of its clients have a Conflict of Interest with PREPA, nor any of FEP’s other contractual relationships represent a conflict of interests with PREPA. If such conflicting interests arise after the execution of this Agreement, FEP shall, to the extent consistent with its obligations to other clients, notify PREPA immediately. If FEP determines it does represent anyone who has adverse interests that are in conflict with PREPA, FEP shall notify PREPA and take commercially reasonable measures to safeguard PREPA's interests and ensure its Confidential Information remains confidential. Any employee of FEP representing anyone with adverse interests to PREPA shall be restricted access to any and all information regarding PREPA and FEP shall take commercially reasonable measures to ensure the proper procedures are in place to protect PREPA's interests. -----
